INTERFAITH COMMUNITY SERVICES

“Your helping hands at the time I need it makes my life easier. It’s like having an old friend driving me to the doctor’s appointment.”

- Betty

“Thank you for all the help. Without you all I wouldn’t be on my feet today!”

- Joyce

“For all of the kindness, support, references, résumé writing and all of your efforts, I thank you from the bottom of my heart. Without this, I would not have been able to be hired on my new job.”

- Laurel

Dear Friends,

Our theme this year—The Difference You Make—is a fitting choice, for we are blessed by the loyal dedication of 650 volunteers and an outpouring of community support which helps us respond to ever-increasing community needs.

From our perspective, the economy hasn't improved for most households—families struggle with joblessness or underemployment and seniors are living on fixed incomes. A small blip in income, an unplanned illness or family crisis, a grandparent assuming responsibilities for grandchildren—these are just a few of the real-life situations that prompt individuals to turn to ICS. This past fiscal year, 33,505 people were touched by our services – a 32% increase over the prior year.

How does ICS weather ongoing cuts in government funding and still assist an unprecedented number of our neighbors? We turn to the community—individuals, faith communities, family foundations, corporate and other groups—and count on compassionate people who work tirelessly. We try to thank each of you often and regularly, but we can't say it enough. "Thank you for your wonderful support. You make the difference every day, and we couldn't do it without you." Together, we have accomplished so much this year:

ICS Food Bank expanded efforts. We served 6,682 households with an increase of 56% in our services. Some days we can barely keep up with the demand…and then an "angel" stops by with a truckload or a check to help fill the need.

Provision of a record-breaking number of services to the community. Volunteer time increased 10% this year. The value of our volunteers stretches beyond their caring services. Their dedication of over 50,000 hours equals 24 full-time staff positions!

Programs that focus on quality and results. Our umbrella of services helps our clients achieve sustainability—whether facing homelessness or unemployment or needing assistance to remain independent. Behind every statistic is a life changed.

Continuing mental illness awareness and education. The 2012 Faith Communities and Mental Illness Conference guided faith communities in developing empathetic services for families affected by mental health issues. Thanks to The David C. and Lura M. Lovell Foundation for support to increase these education programs. A new collaboration with Community Partnership of Southern Arizona will further expand these efforts.

Recognition – for the fourth year – as a Four-Star Charity. With your help, our administrative expenses remain low with 87% of every one dollar donated going straight to our programs. This exceptional rating from Charity Navigator says much about the ICS Board and management's serious approach to stewardship and responsible growth with integrity.

We thank each and all for your strong support of and participation in ICS programs and services. Thank you for standing with us and giving generously of your time and resources. You impact so many people.

We cannot overstate the difference you make!

Emergency Financial Assistance

SUPPORTS FOR SUSTAINABILITY

According to recent Census data, more than 20% of Tucson-metro area residents and 29% of children live in poverty. More than 6,000 people live without a home or are in danger of eviction. For households living paycheck to paycheck, any financial setback – unemployment, medical bills, car repairs or increased rent can have devastating consequences.

Emergency Financial Assistance was again one of our most requested services at ICS at both our eastside and northwest offices. Each morning, available funds were often depleted within hours of opening our doors. Staff and volunteers managed full lobbies and fielded up to 300 calls per day for short-term aid with rent, utilities, medications, transportation and simple work-related expenses. With help from grants and private individuals, ICS enabled over 9,000 individuals to mitigate crisis and begin the journey forward, including finding or retaining safe housing.

Helping individuals and families meet essential survival needs frees them to focus on rebuilding their finances and, as we often find, their hopes for the future. ICS Case Managers provided coaching to assist each recipient in identifying goals and mapping plans for longer-term stability.

Jeff's Story

Jeff and his family came to ICS as a last resort. They had exhausted help from a cousin, run through their savings and were struggling to pay their utilities and rent each month on one salary. When one of the children had a sudden medical emergency, Jeff says, "We knew we had to do something." ICS was able to help the family keep their utilities from being disconnected until Jeff can start a new job and, through discretionary funds, to pay the pharmacy so he and his wife can get medications for their daughter.

Post surveys of the households ICS serves show that 80% are able to meet immediate needs, access resources and develop stabilization plans.

JOB RESOURCE CENTERS HELP CLIENTS FIND WORK . . . AND MORE

Securing steady work is the first crucial step for our recipients to regain economic security and provide for their families. ICS expanded our popular employment readiness services this past year opening a third Job Resource Center in Marana at space co-located with Arizona Youth Partnership (AzYP). The new Center adds to our existing jobs program at the northwest and eastside offices and is made possible through a joint U.S. Health and Human Services grant with AzYP and support from The Wolslager Foundation.

At the Centers, volunteers with professional backgrounds provide encouragement and assistance conducting job searches, updating résumés, polishing interview skills, building self-esteem and staying competitive in today's brutal job market. Complimentary computer and financial literacy programs, money management classes and AzYP's "Building Futures for Families" communication workshops are also provided. From recent graduate to CEO to mom trying to return to the work force, clients come from all situations. ICS Resource Center employment services are free and available to all.

VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance)

Volunteer tax preparers assisted in completing and filing 249 tax returns, helping low- to moderate-income households obtain $519,943 in tax refunds, as well as State, Federal and earned income credits.

Feedback From Job Seekers

"Thank you for being so nice to me today. Being without a job is scary, but people like you…make people feel like there is help out there."

"…I believe it is because of the staff in the Resource Centers who helped with my online application that I was able to walk in with an up-to-date resume as a follow-up. I am very happy to have a part-time position to help support my family."

"I was able to start my new job two months ago and enjoy getting a paycheck again. Thank you for helping me. Without you, I wouldn't be on my feet today."

ICS Food Bank

FILLING RISING NEED

At ICS, we believe food is a necessity that no one in our community should be without. As in past years, our food distribution at the ICS Food Bank has grown dramatically to allow us to respond to a rapid increase in the demand for food. The economic downturn has left many people in Pima County out of work, underemployed and seeking help with food for the first time. Exacerbating this situation, recent reductions in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (food stamps) and other financial supports are challenging low-income households already stretched thin, even further. According to recent statistics, 1 in 4 families in Arizona suffers from food hardship, meaning they can't afford to put food on the table.

In fiscal year 2012-2013, the ICS Food Bank again helped a record number of households meet basic needs for nutrition, distributing an average of 2,000 emergency food boxes monthly (up 35%). Because a food box lasts only a few days, over 30,000 supplemental food items per month were also provided to help families extend their resources. These items included bread, fresh fruits and vegetables, dairy products and protein items, as well as healthy snacks and infant formula, as available. ICS helps anyone in need; however, 50% of households served are families with children.

"The food I get at the ICS Food Bank allows me to feed my kids and have a little money left over for rent and gas. We are trying to get back on our feet, but then something else always seems to happen and here we go again. We are thankful for this help until life can (maybe) get back to normal some day."

What a difference a bigger space makes! Since opening the new ICS Food Bank, an expanded 2,700 square feet has enabled the provision of healthy, fresh and frozen foods for the households we serve.

ICS Food Bank

FILLING RISING NEED

New relationships with food suppliers and vendors is helping ICS increase the amount and variety of food available to our ICS Food Bank clients. We are grateful to the following partners for major food contributions:

- Beyond Bread
- Bakehouse Bread Company
- Community Food Bank of Southern Arizona
- eegee's
- Einstein Bagels
- GAP Ministries
- Iskashitaa Refugee Network
- Fry's Food at Lambert & La Canada
- Edward Jones Financial Services

In addition, ICS is blessed by many food drives from faith communities, businesses and community groups that help us keep our shelves stocked. Our largest food drive, the Edward Jones Bag-A-Thon, collected 70,000 pounds of food in November 2012.

In November and December, ICS Food Bank recipients receive a holiday food bag filled with the fixings for a complete meal in addition to their regular monthly food box. The holidays are a very busy time for ICS. Lines stretch around our buildings and it is not unusual for us to see more than 300 households who come for help each day.

ICS Caregiving Services

PROMOTING COMFORT AT HOME

At 76, George has macular degeneration, which blurs his vision. Every week, George looks foward to a visit from Jerry, an ICS Caregiving Services volunteer, who helps him sort through mail and pay his bills. “Having Jerry stop by brightens my day,” says George, “and it saves me money too.”

Last year, ICS helped improve the lives of seniors and adults with physical challenges enabling them to stay safe and independent. Recipients are matched with volunteers, who carry out a host of free services to help them meet essential living needs. From providing rides to doctor’s visits, therapy appointments and shopping, to friendly phoning, companion sitting, and small home repairs, ICS volunteers are a lifeline to the outside world for frail or homebound individuals.

Census data confirms seniors are the fastest growing segment of the Pima County population with the number of those ages 60 and better increasing by 36%. As this trend continues, ICS is working to expand its caregiving programs to respond to the emerging needs of this vibrant and important demographic.

Home Repairs

Rickety stairs, leaking toilets, broken windows—they’re no match for the ICS Home Repair Team of Brian Fitzgerald, Andy Fiore and Tim Powell. Last year, the guys helped dozens of neighbors in need like Alva, who got her porch painted.

New ICS Care-a-Van Hits the Road

Launched late 2012, our new passenger van takes seniors and disabled adults on group shopping and other outings. It also provides rides for seniors in low-income housing and rural residents in the Picture Rocks area with limited transportation options. The van was purchased through a partial grant from the Arizona Department of Transportation with additional grants from Tucson Electric Power, the William L. and Ruth T. Pendleton Memorial Fund and the Oro Valley Community Foundation. The arm-in-arm service helps Christine and her neighbors get to the grocery store. “It’s great to get my monthly shopping done in one trip,” says Christine. “The volunteer pushed the cart and even brought everything into my apartment.”

Mobile Meals

A MEAL AND A SMILE

ICS Mobile Meals provide daily, special-diet meal delivery to low-income seniors and disabled people in northwest Tucson and unincorporated parts of Pima County. Recipients get two meals (one hot and one cold) each weekday, 52 weeks a year. This is the only ICS service for which there is a charge. Nominal costs are based on a sliding-scale fee and a person's ability to pay. About 75% of ICS Mobile Meals recipients are subsidized.

In addition to nourishing food, recipients receive important daily interaction with volunteers and the benefit of someone checking on their well-being. All of our volunteers are trained to spot and report danger signs that may indicate a recipient has physical or mental health needs that require attention. Many of our recipients would suffer from illness, malnutrition and isolation without this service.

Ruth's Story:

Ruth had a heart attack several years ago and went on ICS Mobile Meals at her doctor's suggestion. "I didn't want to give up my independence. The meals have a nice variety and help me meet my nutritional needs," she says. Ruth reports that her volunteer, Ruth Ann, "lifts my spirits every day." Ruth Ann says the recipients she serves nourish her spirit as much as the food she brings them nourishes their bodies.

ICS Mobile Meals are prepared by partnering hospitals and senior care centers (see Page 10). Recipients often tell us the visit from their ICS Mobile Meals driver is the highlight of their day.

Other Services:

ICS recipients have multiple opportunities to participate in health-related screenings and workshops. A new program is in the works for 2014, to help high-risk, registered ICS Caregiving recipients access the services and resources they need and the benefits for which they are eligible so they can continue living on their own, improve their well-being, and better manage health conditions.

Volunteers

LOVE IN MOTION

More than 70 volunteers help out at the annual Bag-A-Thon.

More than 650 caring individuals answered the call to make a difference by serving as ICS volunteers last year. Volunteers gave an astounding 50,090 hours in 2012-2013 valued at $1.5 million and the equivalent of 24 full-time staff positions as valued by the Independent Sector.

Their energies translated into more funds for our programs, and more lives changed. ICS volunteers provide key leadership on our Board of Directors and committees. They are also the face, heart, soul, eyes and ears of our operations working in the ICS Food Bank, staffing our front desk, assisting in our Resource Centers, providing transportation, delivering Mobile Meals, helping at fundraising events …and so much more! Thanks to all of our volunteers for your deep dedication!

In Our Volunteer's Words

"When we volunteer at ICS, it affords us the opportunity to treat people in need with kindness and respect so that along with ICS services, we can offer a handshake, a touch, some words of encouragement, and a little compassion to make my day better, and, hopefully, theirs as well.

Recipients often tell us that what we do at ICS is a blessing. That may be true. But our recipients likewise, are a blessing to us as volunteers. They provide us with the opportunity and ability to enrich our own lives while making Tucson a little bit better place to live."

Faith Community Engagement

Interfaith Community Services is blessed by the support of 74 diverse faith partners united by a common cause: to work together and pool resources to better serve those in need. Beyond lending their prayers and encouragement, faith communities offer a major source of volunteers at ICS. They also assist our operations in many ways, from holding food, diaper and school supply drives to adopting families for our Holiday Gifts of Love program to hosting variety of events and fundraisers on our behalf. Last year, faith community partnerships provided almost 6% of our annual funding.

Whole Health Programs

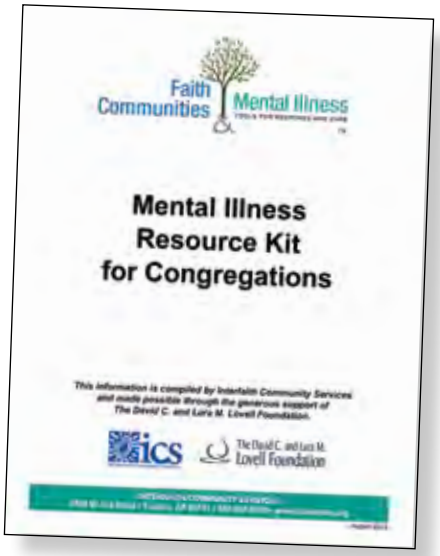
ICS works with congregations to develop whole person health programs addressing the spiritual, physical and mental health of congregants and neighbors. Semi-annual trainings for congregational health and outreach leaders provide information and inspiration for implementing congregation-based health programs.

Mental Illness Resources

Our April 2012 Faith Communities and Mental Illness Conference brought faith leaders together to spur important conversations on addressing the stigma of mental illness and the sense of isolation and rejection it engenders.

With support from The David C. and Lura M. Lovell Foundation and in cooperation with NAMI-Southern Arizona FaithNet and Community Partnership of Southern Arizona, ICS continued this important work with a series of informational Lunch and Learn forums. Topics covered depression, youth and mental illness, and building education and advocacy programs that encourage inclusion and provide comfort to those affected by mental health issues.

ICS is proud to be a part of these initiatives that carry on the mission of the late Lura Lovell to improve the quality of life for those coping with mental illness and to better equip faith communities –a first place to turn for solace– in better reaching out and responding.



Caring Together

ICS provided over 300 Mental Illness Resource Kits filled with topical information, local care resource listings and ideas for developing supportive programs. The kits were well received by local congregations.

At the same time, our combined administrative and fundraising expenses are 12.88%, well below the national average for non-profit organizations.

Increased Transportation

The ICS Care-a-Van hit the road providing group shopping trips for seniors and disabled adults throughout Pima County, including those in low-income housing facilities and rural Picture Rocks. The passenger van came through a grant from the Arizona Department of Transportation

Mental Health Outreach

Following up our 2012 Faith Communities and Mental Illness Conference, ICS presented three Mental Illness Lunch and Learn seminars covering youth and mental illness, depression, and collaboration among faith leaders. In outreach, ICS provided over 300 Mental Illness Resource Kits to faith communities filled with topical information, local care resource listings and ideas for developing supportive programs. Efforts were made possible by the Lovell Foundation in partnership with NAMI-Southern Arizona and CPSA.

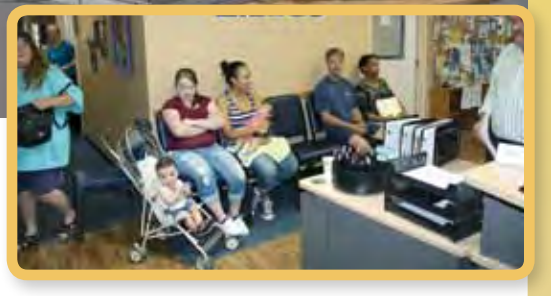
Coming next . . .

ICS renovates for better service, security.



Walk through the front door of the ICS Ina Road office and you are immediately in the center of a busy and noisy scene. On any day, clients, children, a wheelchair or stroller create a traffic jam. Volunteers share limited space and client conversations take place with insufficient privacy. Add to this the fact that stresses on households in need have never been greater. It is tough and often tense when clients facing eviction or other crisis are told that funds today are exhausted and they must call to make an appointment.

Carrying out our work in this environment is becoming more and more difficult. In talking with our donors and volunteers, the feedback has been unanimous: This challenge can't wait. ICS needs to act now in the best interests of those we serve and those who deliver our services. And we are.

ICS has launched a capital campaign and expects to break ground on a new client welcome center in spring 2014. This 1,600-square-foot facility will provide a dedicated reception area for clients, create better confidentiality, add office space to expand services, and enable ICS to institute best safety practices for staff, volunteers and the many people we assist. With generous support from dozens of contributors, we have reached 90% of our fund-raising goal. To find out more and learn how you can help, please contact us. Your support will ensure that ICS can be here—both safely and efficiently—for those who are counting on us. Thank you!
